

Clwb Llanllawen

Hwyl yn Gymraeg - Fun in Welsh

THE RUTHIN WALK

Stand with your back to the clock facing the Old Courthouse

What year does this date back to?

Turn right, walk down the hill

What road are you in?

Take the first left, if you reach the shop Elfair turn back

How long can you park in the street ahead?

Turn right

What can you not do at the end of this street?

Continue down the hill

What ceased to be open in 1916?

What can you see that you can put on a Christmas tree?

Who has priority?

Pass the Castle Park Café

Turn Left

At the end of the car park, what do you see?

Turn left, walk up six steps

Turn left then right

Take the footpath on your left

Who has to be prepared?

How many seats are on this path?

Go through the arch

How many pipes are in the wall facing you?

At the end of the footpath, take the road past the castle then turn left

What is the name of the first house on the left in English?

Walk past the car park

How much is it to park for two hours?

What colour badge must pay and display?

What lane are you now in?

Turn right

What is the name of the first shop you come to on the right?

After the Feathers Inn turn left

There is a crossing, please use it!

How many window boxes does the pub have?

Turn left

Walk along this road

What is the name of the last house on the left before Greenfield road?

Walk past the Vets surgery

Cross the road at the crossing

What days are Tesco open until ten?

Cross the road, you will see the Craft Centre ahead

What can you get here?

Cross the road at the lights

Walk through the car park

How long can you park for forty pence?

What is in the bin?

Cross the road, turn left

At the red box turn right then right into School road

What time is the last collection Monday to Friday?

Where is the post collected from on Bank Holidays?

Walk up the hill

What is the name of the Centre on your right?

Who plays games here the first Thursday of each month?

Just before Abbeyfield House turn left

What hospital was here?

What am I by the grace of God?

Walk to the end of the path, you will see little houses

How many little slate roofs are there?

Go through the church yard

Whose gate is ahead?

Who made the gates?

Return to the start

Look to your left

We will see you in the seven eyes for a drink and chat.

We hope you have enjoyed the walk.

If anyone would like to write a walk for us, please do.

We would welcome everyone's comments and ideas for future events.

We would also welcome any feedback on past events, what you have enjoyed or not.

Take care and see you again.

Clwb Llanllawen-Hwyl yn Gymraeg